Girandole Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 174 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 7.5in. x 0.4in. Miracle on Fourth Street is the story of the preservation of a family home that belonged to one of the early merchants of New York City. Lived in by one family for almost 100 years, the house was preserved as a museum upon the death of the last family member. The book recounts the struggle of the founder of the museum to realize his quixotic vision, the critical intervention of an architect who devoted his life to an authentic structural restoration, and the dedication of a group of women who would not give up their goal of reclaiming the beauty of the original furnishings. It is a story of creative solutions to structural calamities, heartbreaking setbacks, disappointing personality conflicts, and the current stewards triumph over a final brutal assault on the building that quite literally could have brought the house down. Now known as the Merchants House Museum, the landmarked site affords over 15,000 visitors a year a unique window into mid-nineteenth domestic life of the merchant elite of New York City. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
