

Cost of Our Silence: Consequences of Christians Taking the Path of Least Resistance (Paperback)

By David Fiorazo

Life Sentence Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There are consequences when God's people take the path of least resistance and back out of culture. One only needs to look at our society to see we are living with those consequences today. -Why do you think so many Christians pursue comfort over commitment to Christ? -Do you sometimes feel overwhelmed by the darkness and moral decline in society today and wonder what happened to the salt and light? -How have we reached a point where Christians who do preach the gospel and speak up about sin are called hateful, intolerant, or judgmental? Christian in name only, America has become an epicenter for the culture war as too many of us keep ducking the issue of sin. Due to decades of Christians being silent, failing to preach the gospel and speak the truth in love, we've reached a tipping point in which political correctness refuses to coexist with religious freedom. Why do you think Christians who defend God's Word are often called hateful, intolerant, or judgmental? There are consequences in this life and for eternity, when Christians...
