There are times in everyone s life when the world comes at them at an alarming rate.for Adi Kent it all started when she lost her events planning job in Florida. When Adilei Kent returns to Boston after her father s death, she plans to oversee the sale of the mansion that s been in her family for longer than anyone can remember. Instead she finds herself walking the streets of Victorian era Boston caught up in a battle between good and evil that has the potential to change everything. From the moment Adi discovers her imaginary friend from childhood is far from fictional, life in the mansion gets more interesting and increasingly dangerous. This is a novella with a HEA and a whole new cast of characters.
