Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report on Trade Conditions in Ecuador Sir: In submitting the appended Report on Trade Conditions in Ecuador I wish to call attention to the especially favorable prospects which exist for trade with the United States. Ecuador through its geographical position will be the most directly benefited of the west coast countries.of South America by the Panama Canal, and the results of that waterway in the increased volume of commerce seeking this route are already being anticipated at Guayaquil. Fuller benefits will be secured when this wealthy port with its many natural advantages for shipping and its facilities for handling commodities of import and export is protected from the ravages of tropical epidemic diseases by placing it in line with modern scientific sanitation as has been done so successfully at Habana and Panama. An important means of developing the internal resources of the country is the American Railway extending from the coast across the Andes to the capital. With the means of transportation thus facilitated an increase of commerce should follow, and some indications of this are now apparent. The full effects in providing an outlet for Ecuadorian products and in enlarging the market for goods from abroad ultimately will be shown in the addition to the foreign trade. There is now an interchange of commodities to the approximate value of $22,000,000 annually. In the actual exchange the balance is in favor of Ecuador. The country is especially favored in the tropical agricultural exports which form the bulk of its exports, for most of them are produced in few other regions and in the face of lowered values of such staple tropical products as coffee are...
