Excerpt from The School Janitor, Vol. 24: A Study of the Functions and Administration of School Janitor Service There are three reasons why the following study of the school janitor service has been made: 1. The importance of the janitors position in a modern school system. This is seen by a consideration, especially, of his relation to the up-keep and sanitation of buildings in his charge, the health and safety of their occupants, the educative value of the janitor s work, and his influence upon pupils from a moral standpoint during the years most vital in the formation of character. These various relations are discussed in some detail in Chapter II. 2. The nonappreciation of the janitor s importance on the part of school officials and the public generally. 3. No comprehensive study of the subject has heretofore been made. From these considerations, the need for such a study seems conclusive. If school boards, superintendents, principals, teachers, parents, and janitors themselves can be led to understand and appreciate the importance of the janitor as a responsible school officer, and can be shown wherein the service should be improved and the methods by which this may be accomplished, it is believed that a valuable service will have been rendered to the cause of public education. Objects Of The Study. In pursuing the study there have been two main objects of investigation, as follows: 1. The administration of school janitor service. 2. The functions of the school janitor. The data and discussion in relation to administration are embraced in Chapter III, and include such matters as the selection and appointment of janitors, their compensation, living and office quarters, rating and promotion, tenure, method...
