Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Proceedings of a General Conference of Bengal Protestant Missionaries: Held at Calcutta, September 4-7, 1855 Few subjects can furnish amore appropriate introduction to the discussions of this Conference, than the one which I have the honour to bring forward. The present is the first occasion, during the sixty years progress of Protestant Mis sions in Bengal, on which the missionaries of all Societies, from the country as well as the chief town of the Presidency, have met to deliberate on their common affairs, and to endea vour, by bringing their experience into a common stock, to throw light upon each other s labours, and estimate the eihei ency of each other s plans. While, therefore, the proprietors of steamboats and railroads, or the members of mercantile firms, calculate the results of their speculations, and look with an eager eye to the annual dividends they produce, we too may, at the outset of our meetings, survey the fruits which have sprung from missionary labours, examine the condition and efficiency Of our systems of agency, and estimate from them the prospects which lie...
