Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Parliament and Reconstruction: A Plea and a Plan Since the following pages were written we have seen Glasgow and Belfast held by armed forces, as though they were bridge-heads on the Rhine. The affairs of London have been more dislocated than by any series of the air-raids. North and South, East and West, there are ominous mutterings and rumblings. A reaction from the strain of the War, one sapient public adviser assures us is the cause. Another, equally intelligent, tells us it is all the work of a comparatively few paid agitators. One has to believe that the readers of the daily press accept such explanations - and one has to believe this, and sad and disheartened, wonder how the scales can be removed from eyes so blind, the stoppers from ears so deaf. Have not the signs been made manifest for long years past? Was the message of the slum undecipherable? Had the Police Court, the Asylum, the Workhouse no voice? Could the ever-growing acceptance - not confined to manual labour - of State...
