

The Funeral Lady: The Big Finale: An Event to Remember (Paperback)

By Pam Meily Vetter

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When her sister died, Pam Vetter got a wake up call that the funeral doesn't always belong to the family. She became a Certified Funeral Celebrant to help families plan funerals for loved ones. Through this book, she widens her reach to help families, so when the time comes, the healing can begin. I lived it, breathed it, and grieved it. I'm not alone. People need to be involved in the process of funeral planning and yet they don't know where to turn. I wrote this book to reach out and help families, Vetter said. Saying farewell is one of the most important days in someone's life, but families need help in planning a funeral. This book reminds families to know their consumer rights in organizing a funeral. Event funerals aren't about spending more money, instead they're focused on the life lived, storytelling and playing favorite music. Families are at their most vulnerable when someone dies, but by being heard in the process, families come through the experience with hands-on involvement, dignity and understanding....
