

Light and Transient Causes

By Mel Hawkins

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 378 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. It is 202x and the U. S. faces crises of historic proportions on both the international and domestic fronts. Following horrific acts of terrorism, unprecedented natural calamity, abandonment by our allies, and an embargo by oil-producing nations the collapse of the American economy has created incendiary conditions in our cities. Tens of millions of Americans have lost their faith in the American dream. As racial tensions escalate, the prejudices of the American people spiral out of control and minority populations are targeted. Many Americans point to their governments policies in support of Israel as the root cause of the nations problems and anti-Semitism becomes the fashion of the day. Out of fear, the American people elect a reactionary candidate for the Presidency on the basis of his promise to restore domestic peace and prosperity at any cost. In many states, the President has appointed military state governors in order to quell the violence and seize control over the citizenry. From a hopeful slumber, Americans awoken to the harsh reality of martial law. In Indianapolis two groups of Americans, one African-American...
