

Of Ruins and Romance (Paperback)

By Rosie Chapel

Ulfire Pty Ltd, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . On her penultimate day at University, Kassandra Winters inadvertently overheard herself described as . . . too shy, too plain, a bit ungainly if you must know and rather on the plump side, not at all what s needed for such things. Kassandra would be far more suited to a job in an archive office. Worse still she was subsequently knocked flying by the exceedingly tall and drop-dead gorgeous man to whom this description had been delivered. Adding insult to injury she ran into the same man the next afternoon and, justifiably upset by what she had heard, refused to indulge his somewhat perplexing determination to engage her in the oddest conversation and gave him short shrift. Fast-forward two years and contrary to expectations, Kassie is not hidden away in an archive office. She is in Rome; employed by one of that city s famous International Schools, as well as a tourist agency. One day, while escorting a group of visitors around the ancient Roman port of Ostia, she bumps into the same man - the man whose seemingly random remarks still puzzle...
