David D Dickinson, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Book Two in The Old Car Nut Book series provides more stories from old car guys and gals from across America. You will read about the personal exploits of people that love the classics, muscle cars, and hot rods and the varied reasons for that enduring love. Relive their experiences, both good and bad, and read about the amazing effect that the cars have on people from all walks of life. The old cars seem to bind Americans together and provide a way to connect with others that they may never get a chance to know otherwise Caution: Like book one, once you pick this book up, it will be difficult to put down and you will want to reread the stories over and over, sharing with the people that make your experience in the world of old cars worthwhile. Reviews for book one in The Old Car Nut Book series: What a fun book. Everyone has a car story. This book pulls a few of them out. It is one of those books you don t want to end. If I had my way, there would be at least 20 volumes. Reading the stories in this book is like pulling up a lawn chair in group of old car nuts at a car show and listening to their stories. These stories are written by the people who actually lived the experiences. Excerpts from The Old Car Nut Book #2 I watched as the two of them got in the car and pulled away. A right turn at the end of the block would take her straight to the grocery store, and a left would take...
