Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: . believe that he must of necessity always be in the wrong--let us make it as easy as possible for him to be in the right. What is true in the home and in social life will be true in business life and interests as well; for the life that is actuated by an earnest optimism will carry its sunlight wherever it may go. If the Easter spirit has been truly absorbed, and renewed life sings its music to the soul, the days and the nights, the weeks and months, which follow will shine with a brighter light, because, more than light of sun or moon, it is the reflection from within which makes the way of our earthly pilgrimage bright or gloomy; and as it seems to us, so will it seem by sympathy to those with whom we associate, for as a man thinketh,...
