When fifty seven years of pagan darkness brought the people of God to the brink of disaster a young king named Josiah made a series of crucial choices that turned calamity into comeback. That mighty revival was fueled by a courageous prophet of God named Zephaniah who was not afraid to proclaim an unpopular message. Paul Schwanke opens the often neglected book of Zephaniah to examine the preaching that God used to ignite one of the Bible s greatest revivals. Surely, if the people of God s local churches will see a mighty moving in this day, there must be dauntless men of God willing to proclaim an unwanted message. Revival s Secret is written with the prayer that God will raise up such men.
