Enter one way, exit another. James Oglethorpe, a 6 year-old, is coerced into the life of a ghetto drug runner. He fights the die anytime 24/7 dread and doom mindset and becomes a person far removed from his origins. In his third career, his discovery of an old, beaten-up doll leads to betrayal, and. The Back Room. Wen Luc, the #1 ranked Table Tennis player in New Jersey, is challenged by a Hassidic Jew. He accepts and the match is alternately fierce, bizarre and hilarious. The game ending brings both to The Back Room. After nearly being killed by horrendous drivers, two high-powered attorneys devise a business to rid the roads of them. And make a fortune. One of them becomes involved with The Back Room. Paths of unforgettable characters cross: Boris, the obnoxious yet lovable hacker hunted by the KGB for treason; a Russian gang from Brooklyn for gambling debts; and Russian Embassy sex-slave traffickers for incriminating evidence he doesn't know he has; Kyra, the exotic Krav Maga expert and linguist of seven global...
