The aviation industry is important to the U.S. economy and is a critical link in the nation s transportation infrastructure. However, the industry has faced challenges, such as an outdated national air-traffic management system and an increasingly competitive global market. In 2010, in response to these and other challenges, DOT established the FAAC to develop a manageable, actionable list of recommendations for DOT. In April 2011, the FAAC released a report outlining 23 recommendations in five areas: environment, financing, competitiveness and viability, labor and workforce, and safety. GAO was asked to review the status of DOT s efforts to implement the FAAC recommendations. GAO examined 10 of the FAAC s 23 recommendations to determine (1) DOT s progress in addressing the selected recommendations, and any planned future actions; (2) the FAAC members perspective on the extent to which DOT s actions address these recommendations; and (3) the challenges, if any, that DOT faces in addressing the recommendations. The 10 selected recommendations covered each of the 5 areas and allowed GAO to leverage ongoing or recent GAO work. GAO did not analyze...
