Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. If you ever wondered how to plan a move to another country and to start all over again, getting to know the neighborhoods, finding a school, renting a house, getting familiar with the host countrys holidays, and more, this book covers it all, including the different requirements to move to Chile. Upside Down in Chile gives all the inside information of what is really involved to be an expat in Santiago. At the same time it has the objective to send a message of dont give up! It doesnt matter if your problems are big or small, it only depends on the circumstances and doesnt apply to everybody. It is not a one size fits all. What is important is how to overcome different difficulties and not to quit. On the contrary, get up, dust yourself off and continue with life. After all, living ones life is what makes us alive. Each chapter gives different advice in accordance with life events and how to get treats that are exclusive to Chile, like a curanto, terremoto, and Barros Luco amongst other treats. This book also provides information about some of the most important places to visit while in Chile. It covers Rapa Nui, Torres del Paine, Isla Magdalena, and more. Chile is a wonderful country with so much to explore and a lot to do, starting with Santiago city.
