Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As a fourth generation Madisonian, Bob Schlicht shares important life-changing experiences and advice he received from family mentors, teachers, coaches, psychologists, bankers, and business leaders in The Importance of Mentors in Life. Schlicht's autobiography is rich with stories about his father, professional golfer Karl -Kully- Schlicht Sr., his time at UW-Madison as a student-athlete and his many years as President of Valley Bank of Madison and MI Bank in Madison. Filled with anecdotes and photos, Schlicht fondly recalls classmates, teammates, employees and events from his and his family's years in Madison. He covers the history of banks that merged with the MI Banks in southern Wisconsin. The Schlicht family was very involved in the golfing profession. The book covers the history of some of the the best golfers in Wisconsin golf history. His father, Karl -Kully- Schlicht Sr., was a well-known Madison golf professional who played in four U.S. Open Golf Championships in the 1930s. He also played in several exhibition matches against United States Open Golf champions in Madison, including Walter Hagan, Gene Sarazen, Johnny Farrell, and Dr. Cary Middlecoff. In 1972, Kully Schlicht was inducted into the Madison Sports Hall of Fame. As a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Schlicht played football for the UW Badgers. He shares stories about friends and teammates on the University of Wisconsin football team. His friend and Badger teammate, Mike Webster, was diagnosed with chronic traumatic encephalopathy, a neurodegenerative disease. His tragic story and last days were portrayed in the movie Concussion. His story was ground breaking and is highlighted in this book. MI Bank Corporation, founded in 1847, was a strong local and nationwide banking organization for over...
