

Being God: Stealing God's Power, Glory, and Kingdom (Paperback)

By Terry Stueck

High Plains Bible Mission, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Being God exposes Man's Failure to Live under God's Ownership. Even though we acknowledge God as owner of the universe, we do not live out that fact in our daily lives. We have a tendency to own ourselves which makes us our own God in practice. C. S. Lewis alluded to God's ownership in his writings, but this is the first work to explore the details and explain its importance and impact on your lives. The author uses scripture and the original languages to disclose what first century Christians knew, but we have lost over time by our own desire to avoid knowing what God really wants from us. Being God is a unique and refreshing look at our true relationship with our creator and savior. The real question in the Garden of Eden was who the rule-maker would be. Only the owner has the power to make the rules. Adam changing the rule was not just a flaw in behavior classified as a misdemeanor, but the felony of grand theft of God's power to make the...
