

Making Inclusion Work: Effective Practices for All Teachers (Paperback)

By John Beattie, LuAnn Jordan, Bob Algozzine

Skyhorse Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Reissue. Language: English . Brand New Book. Learn the best methods for teaching students with disabilities in an inclusive classroom! In today's classrooms, teachers must meet the educational needs of students of all ability levels, including students with disabilities. This invaluable resource offers elementary and secondary teachers a deeper awareness of what works when teaching students with disabilities in general education classrooms. Grounded in extensive special education research, this book will enlighten teachers with a greater understanding of special education students and how to teach them successfully. For teaching students with the most common disabilities in classes with their nondisabled peers, general and special education teachers alike will get the most current information on issues such as: * Developing Individualized Education Programs * Teaching reading successfully * Managing behavior and motivating students * Organizing classrooms and lessons effectively * Using cognitive strategies successfully * Making appropriate accommodations and modifications * Assessing students, grading, and collecting data * Working with parents and families * Collaborating with other teachers and parents One of the greatest challenges teachers face today is how to ensure that all students succeed, regardless of their ability. Rooted in...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
