But in respect of this difference of procedure, the Visitors wish it to be understood that the remarks made by them as regards the surgical clinical examination are not to be read as involving approval of the same method of procuring the materials in the case of the Apothecaries Company. In their general observations, comparing the clinical examinations in medicine of the several Royal Colleges, the Visitors had occasion to discuss more at large than is necessary at present the relative advantages of the viva voce method and of the written paper. In the Apothecaries clinical examination the latter method is exclusively followed. The Visitors were not, any more than...
