America Star Books, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Why must aging haunt me? Almost daily now it seems In the mirror after rising, during all my dayas routines At evening when the stillness often causes me to slow Taking stock of where lave been and how much further I must go I worry that my ending will leave a cluttered scene Dues unpaid for dreams unborn or chasing harebrained schemes A calling perhaps is what it means or a crisis at middle age But I cannot rest until my views are put down on a page Here are the workings of my mind spelled out in poems and prose I hope that some will make you think and others tweak your nose I have no incite into destiny and my storyas not all told Itas just a view of a thing or two from a man thatas almost old.
