LUATH PRESS LTD, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A legendary figure in the `bothying scene, Allister (`Ashie) Brebner fell in love with the Scottish hills as a boy. In 1963, he gave up his factory job to co-found Highland Safaris - and he never looked back. In his first book, he shares anecdotes of hillwalking, the winter skiing season, building the famous Secret Howff - and delivering sheep in a minibus to make ends meet. Ashie writes with honesty and insight about the magnificence of the Scottish outdoors, joining a tradition of writers inspired by the natural landscape. Alongside the celebration of nature is a warm, witty account of a life spent pursuing the freedom of the mountains.
