Excerpt from Crusader, 1970 Institutions of higher education have lost authority because they have lost legitimacy. They have compromised their distinctive purpose. Carey College has as its purpose the clothing of every student in his rightful mind. Running deep in our campus also is the stream of Christian concern for every member of the Student Body of 1970 that every Carey student in the brand new decade before us will feel the challenge to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.
