Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My purpose in writing this book is to explain how watching professional sports has taught me lessons in ways I could not have understood otherwise. My sports enthusiasm took off on Sunday mornings in the autumn of the early 1970s. That was football day. There would be a game on at 10:00 AM (Pacific Time) and another one on at 1:00 PM. As a result, one could identify the best teams easily because they kept the same players and because they consistently made the playoffs. Anyone wanting to challenge the best teams had to earn their way to the playoffs. A focus on the game instead of hype. There was no ESPN or sports radio then. Now many fans get tired of all of the pre-game shows and just want to see the game. It was all about the teams rather than the players. Back then, I participated in a pool in which we chose the team winners of the games. Now fans follow fantasy sports players and care more about individual performance...
