FABER FABER, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 135 mm. Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A majestic Victorian tale. Wealthy lawyer Esmond, discarded illegitimate son of a peer, has pinched his way to the top of his profession, while his handsome, debt-ridden cavalry officer brother Clinton has inherited the title and the ancestral home. Beautiful actress Theresa, a widow, a fierce free spirit with a sinewy wit, is the woman both will love . (Kirkus Reviews). It is rare in this field to meet the realities of passion, its shifts and treacheries; when this combines with rich historical details, including recondite legal and financial ones, the result is outstanding . (Observer). The novel does imperatively make you want to know what happens next. Three cheers for narrative . (New Statesman). A superb novelistic situation, starkly worked out as it would be in real life. I was intensely concerned for the fortunes of these people . (Elizabeth Jenkins, Kaleidoscope (BBC)).
