

Challenges from the Spirit World

By Noel S L Julius

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a true story which is centered around a weekend of activities as a teenager. I had just collected my pay and thought that it would be fun going to a movie at the parish s capital. Instead, I travelled an additional thirty two miles to the country s capital, all because the bus conductor did not collect any bus-fare from me. Of course, I considered the bus ride very exciting and would travel as far as I could, with no cost being incurred. On arrival in the city of Kingston that Friday night, I went about exploring and was like a rude street boy all around town at times. The encounters and other experiences I had were numerous, exciting, and challenging in some instances. There was no real hurry to get back home, as I wanted more and more information to share with my peers. The available means of communication were then quite limited as there was no mobile telephone service in place. Family members and friends would therefore have no other option than to hope...
