There are few living now who can say with one correspondent (p. 525): I was a reader of The Gentleman s Magazine in the days of fohn Mitford, and I rejoice to know that in these giddy-paced times its scholarly traditions have been honourably revived ; but many will rejoice with him. The Rev. John Mitford was, we believe, the only Editor of northcountry family; but the readers of the letters of Robert Surtees, of Mainsforth, to whom all earnest workers in the north are so indebted, will recollect the long and close friendship between John Nichols and himself. MAGAZINES. Bye-Gones, relating to Wales and the Border Counties, for June, contains several items of general interest. There is a note upon the Virgin s Crown, or funeral garland, a quaint custom referred to by Surtees...
