Mind Key Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .5 Star Review from Reader s Favorite 2016 Indie Summer Awards Nominee Trail of the Grey Wolf is a new adventure for J.J. Houston, a brainy and headstrong young girl with a thirst for archaeology and a drive to uncover the truth. Following the saga of Murder on Moon Street, where J.J. discovers a connection between government officials and the mysterious disappearance of local children, the mayhem stretches endless in Trail of the Grey Wolf. From the zany antics of Miss Tilly to hidden underground bases and theoretical covert operations, we encounter the mysteries of ancient secrets in a suspenseful tale that will keep you on the edge of your seat. -Amanda Cummins, Editor in Chief, Mind Key Publishing It s the summer of 1964 and something sinister is drawing thirteen-year-old J.J. Houston to an abandoned military base located inside a nearby mountain. She ll have to scheme to get there because (ain t it her rusty luck?) the menfolk have decided to leave her behind. To get to the truth behind the baffling disappearance of the children, J.J. will go to any length, even if it means using Miss Tilly s car as a battering ram and tossing a few stolen grenades. Area 64 is a secluded military structure, carved under Sullivan Hill. It has gone mostly unnoticed for more than forty years. Despite Miss Tilly s dire warning, J.J. is determined to explore the complex to search for clues that might draw her closer to discovering who is behind the nefarious scheme that has resulted in tragedy for so many families. J.J. s young sidekick, Bo Duke, overgrown and mud-ridden, exposes a touch of chauvinism when he sides with...
