Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Peace and Righteousness Shall rule in judgment. He sees the redemption of self-centered and aggressive individualism: A man shall be as a hiding - place from the Wind and a covert from the tempest He sees the redemption of nature: The wilderness shall become a fruitful field and the desert bloom as the rose. Instead of the thorn there shall come up the fir tree and in stead of the briar the myrtle tree. And over all the varied and wonderful vision rests the quietness and confidence of a large and permanent peace. What then is this peace, and whence does it come? He tells us that it is a work, an effect. It is not the beginning of a process, but its end; not a root, but a fruit; not the creation of an imperial fiat, but the matured product of a moral order. You cannot command peace, you can only grow it. If you would have the reaping there must be the sowing; for the reaping of peace there must [be the planting of righteousness. That is the law of the sequence. Observe the righteous order then can be grown the lilies of peace. Now we begin to appreciate the successions of this great chapter. The first bugle peal proclaims not the advent of peace, but the enthronement of righteousness. The herald withholds the word peace until righteousness is established. A king shall reign in righteousness and princes shall rule in judgment. That is the voice of the first trumpet, and only when certain great redemptions have been wrought, certain perversities corrected, certain authorities restored, certain pure and moral conditions recovered, is...
