The event which compels me into this book was my meeting with the celebrated mystic, teacher and philosopher, George Ivanovitch Gurdjieff, whom I encountered as if by chance and came to love as if by design. Kathryn Hulmes life was radically changed and enriched by the influence of Gurdjieff. Undiscovered Country is a tribute to him and his teachings, a vivid personal memoir of her experience as his student, and of the burning spiritual intensity that dominated her life as a result of his influence. Undiscovered Country is in the tradition of Kathryn Hulmes best work; painstaking, poetic, and always sincere. In recording her souls search for something more, she contributes an arresting document for those who believe this to be their function on earth. This is a must for all interested in Gurdjieff and his school, and strongly recommended for all who are concerned in the Pilgrimage of the Soul. It gives the best intimate picture I know of what it meant to be a follower of Gurdjieffs ideas. - J. G. Bennett A picture of the relation between a teacher and his pupil. . . the way he opens her to a wider world through a relation which touches the whole of ones being. - Jeanne de Salzman This item ships from multiple locations.
