Excerpt: .has charge of the state fruit-breeding farm, and also to the report of the committee on the same, George W. Strand, chairman, who made the report. Mr. Crosby and Mr. Elwell are also on this committee. From all that was said it is very evident that a great work is in progress and some wonderful things have been already accomplished in the line of producing new choice fruits. I have not visited this farm, but I shall take time to go there during the season of 1915 and will report to you what I shall see. That old horticultural veteran, Seth H. Kenny of Waterville, Minn., was not at the meeting and was sadly missed. Many were the inquiries as to why he was absent. He informed me, by letter, that on the 23d day of last June he had the misfortune to have...
