STRAWBERRIES FOR CHRISTMAS: A WEST VIRGINIA HOMECOMING (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Korean War was over. Nearly 7000 doctors drafted by the Army Medical Corp in 1950 were waiting to go home. Among those was Dr. David Cabot who, through a freak omission in a letter from his father, was on his way to his new medical practice in Boston Knob, West Virginia instead of Boston, Massachusetts. His initial disappointment was somewhat abated when he was greeted at the Bluefield, W.Va. airport by a gorgeous redhead who was to be his nurse and guide in his trip through the dichotomous poverty and wealth caused by the southern Appalachian Mountain s dependency on King Coal. Dr. Cabot was to develop a lasting love for these colorful folks with one stealing his heart. His introduction to the new land took him to jail as a moonshiner, a major player in a mine disaster and an old fashion church revival. Most of the tales are true; the characters are based on real people that the author knew while growing up.
