During a routine test flight in the Bermuda Triangle, Lieutenant Jace Corbins brother Tony vanishes, along with the jet he was testing. Jace moves heaven and ocean to find him, but it isnt until he and his search team vanish too, winding up on an alien planet, that he knows hes finally about to find his brother. But instead of Tony, they find a marvelous city, and the mysteries pile up. Where is Tony Why is he avoiding them What is happening to Jaces men to make them temporarily crazy, one by one And the question that should be least in his mind, and somehow isnt: who is the woman he cant stop dreaming about During a routine research voyage in the Bermuda Triangle, Doctor Jill Savari thinks her dreams of a military team trapped on an alien planet are just dreams. Then she and her dolphin Keilani are sucked through the ocean and into her dreamland. At first, she can barely credit the possibility that her dreams are real, but her only option is to make the best of being stranded in the desert with a marine mammal and a vicious killer. Because the other thing she dreamed was a violent shapeshifter bent on their destruction. Which one of them is it Who can she trust And the question that should be least in her mind but somehow isnt: why did she dream about Jace before she met him If they pool their knowledge and work together to solve the mystery, they might just have a chance. But can they learn to trust each other in time to save their team, Tony, and ultimately, Earth The long-awaited Travelers spinoff...
