iUniverse, United States, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Single, bored, and not inclined to be creative, Paige Reese, writer and artist, browses the online personals and match making services on the Internet. She claims it s strictly for entertainment purposes. Ticked off with the editor of the magazine she writes for, afraid she s going mad because she talks to herself, Paige is primed to take the plunge when a friend urges her to respond to an ad instead of just reading them. She wonders if there can be a romantic encounter with a stranger met online just by scrolling through personal ads and then with the click of the mouse select Mr. Right and send off an email and wait for a positive response. What s the Difference? - is intriguing, funny, poignant, and outrageously hopeful. What s the Difference? - witty in the style of 84 Charing Cross Road, and delightful in words as Sleepless in Seattle and You ve Got Mail are on film. Sure to strike a chord of recognition with those aficionados of cyber introduction, and those who meet and mingle in conventional arenas, and wonder What s the Difference?.
