I AM this day, November 9th, 1881, eighty-two years of age. Sixty-five years of this period I have spent in the service of God. Eighteen years of my Christian experience and life were spent in the dim twilight of a semi-faith, which very clearly and distinctly apprehended Christ as the Lamb of God Who (judicially) taketh away the sin of the world; but knew almost nothing of Him as the Son of God, Who baptizeth with the Holy Ghost, and saveth to the uttermost them that come unto God by Him. During these years, my pilgrimage, for the most part, was with those who fear the Lord, and obey the voice of His servant, and walk in darkness, and have no light. My spiritual heaven was comparatively obscure, because there was no open vision of the face of God, and because the Sun of Righteousness lay below the horizon around me; the eyes of my understanding not being enlightened, that I might know what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power to us-ward who believe. During this period my sky was never wholly dark, From the hour of my primal love and joy in God, I have never been a backslider in heart, but my face has ever been heavenward. Not long after my conversion I attained, by long and fervent prayer, to that form of full assurance in which I could say most unhesitatingly, I know that I love God, and have eternal life. This assurance of present acceptance, after a time, merged into full assurance of...
