Meatball Taster Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 218 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. When Parrish Locke, a 27 year-old fashion model, discovers she has a gift, she wishes it was the type that could be returned. That's not the case. You see, under the right circumstances, Parrish can help stalled souls pass beyond the pearly gates. That's right, she can communicate with their spirits. Well actually, she can do more than that, she can re-live the circumstances surrounding their untimely deaths, and as a result, right some wrongs along the way. Clouds In My Coffee finds Parrish back in the 1970s, in a small Wyoming town where a high school cheerleader died as a result of a car accident on a snowy night. But Parrish knows that isn't what really happened. After forty years, how will she convince authorities there is more to the story? Enter Marco Trevani, Jr., a handsome, somewhat arrogant FBI agent that Parrish's father calls in to assist his gifted daughter. The chemistry between them is undeniable. But there's another surprise in store for Parrish. Clouds In My Coffee is Book 2 in the Limbo Series. Adult Content. Sexual Situations. This item ships from multiple...
