THE ROSE GARDEN.REMEMBERING OUR BEAUTY IN TOUGH TIMES (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . THE ROSE GARDEN.remembering our beauty in tough times. Women, as the co-creators and the ones entrusted with bringing new life into this world, we must honor our strength which rests in our innate gentleness and softness. Our energy which protects an unborn for nine months while it develops all that it needs to survive outside of the womb, is the same energy which will restore wholeness and sanity back to humanity. We cannot do it however listening to others telling us how we should demonstrate our femininity. At our core level we KNOW! We know how to bring LIFE forth into existence. We know how to sustain and maintain life. We know because we are created that way. The female energy is the one chosen to bring life forth! Women from all walks of life are presented, inclusive of individuals with physical and psychological impairments; over-comers of severe obstacles and challenges and those who just refused to be dictated to by someone else as to how they should live their life. In the ROSE GARDEN you are given pages to write and document your thoughts and feelings. You are given affirmations, little notes of wisdom, and tidbits of advice along the way. Use that which best suits you. The process described in the book has been closely associated with the physical labor of pruning a garden, removing the weeds. Removing and discarding the debris and garbage from the garden is a must. THE ROSE GARDEN.remembering our beauty in tough times, provides some tools and suggestions to assist with your pruning process. The seed , the thought, our intention is pure and uncluttered with influences from without or that resides...
