Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From the Preface. In submitting this little volume to the kind consideration of the citizens of Albany, the simple object of the writer is to take issue with many of our Protestant ministers, particularly Dr. Clark, of the Dutch Reformed Church, alias two-steepled church, alias First Reformed Church, who has lately been moving the heavens and the earth against the Catholics and their principles. This self-constituted minister of the gospel of peace, if he is sincere in what he utters, is one of the most bare-faced perverters of God s truth, that it has been our misfortune to hear in a long time. At that season of the year when the anniversary of the birth of Christ is being celebrated by God s people throughout every land and clime, when the true ministers of the gospel are preaching peace and forgiveness to a sin-stricken world, this counterfeit holds forth in his Dutch pulpit, and, in the sacred and holy name of God, bears false witness against his neighbors, falsifies their motives, perverts history against them, and scatters seeds of hate and strife in a community where peace and harmony should prevail. This ought not to be the case, at this age and in this country. Where is the need of plump, well-fed parsons agitating religious feuds, and poisoning the minds of their hearers against a faith instituted by the Son of God - proclaimed by the Evangelists - preached by St. Peter and St. Paul, St. Patrick and St. Augustine - for which kings had laid down their crowns, and martyrs their sacred lives? When one contemplates the position that this man occupies, as lecturer...
