Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Old Babylonian Business and Legal Documents (the Rfh Collection): A Dissertation The following texts are part of a collection of tablets purchased by the late Dr. Robert Francis Harper from a dealer in London some years ago and kindly loaned to the author with a view to their publication. They are business and legal documents from the time of the First Babylonian Dynasty. Seventeen of them have to do with the usual affairs of private business; the rest are temple and palace accounts. The tablets are not very well preserved and in many places are very difficult to read. They come from different Sites in Babylonia, but in many instances it is impossible to lay definitely from what place the tablet has come. In only one case (rfb 1) is the oath taken in the name of a god. In some no date formula is given or it is broken away, and most of the formulae that do appear are altogether new. Quite a number of these in their form suggest that they belong to the Ur Dynasty. Others are probably to be located in the Dynasty of Larsa. The general character of the formulae, the presence of Elamite gods in several of the personal names of the texts, and other characteristics all go to confirm this. The texts present a considerable number of new personal names and contain several new titles of officers. Many of the date formulae, as already noted, are new. The names of new deities and several others that are rare are found in them, and in a number of particulars the tablets are of more than passing importance. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds...
