MASSIE with love and gratitude, I dedicate this book. NOTE PERHAPS it is unnecessary to explain that although the facts in this book are true they have been built, in many cases, around imaginary people. Often the incidents, also true m themselves, have been trans posed from the place of their happening. This has been done that nothing in the book may seem personal to my friends of the East English, American, and Chinese with whom I have dwelt very happily for many years.
