CALVINISM: A VERY SHORT INTRODUCTION (VERY SHORT INTRODUCTIONS)

Oxford University Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 144 pages. John Calvin was born only a few years before the Christian church in Europe was plunged into the chaos of the Protestant Reformation. To Calvin, the only thing that mattered was correcting Gods church, which he thought had wandered away from the truth. Throughout his adult life, Calvin manifested a singular passion with God. He desired intensely to subjugate the world to what he saw as Gods truth, and his ideas started...
