

Friends Failing Forever: The Story of Cassie Gina

By Justice Gray

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 314 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. Justice Gray, the new popular author from Minnesota, has added the seventh novel to The Garbage Collector Series. Friends Failing Forever is a story of how Gina, the never-ending party-seeker, constantly needs a caretaker or babysitter for herself and her young daughter - and how her BFF, Cassie, decides she can't be that person anymore, and leaves Gina out to dry/dry up, hopefully. Periodically, Gina tries to better herself - like getting a job from which she later gets fired, as she gets angry at a child. Cassie, in contrast to Gina's hooker-look, is attractive, stylish, well-educated, and employed, and prefers to keep it that way rather than party with Gina. Cassie falls for Gina's brother, Carl, and after sharing stories of Gina's lies, he encourages Cassie to leave Gina to fend for herself, which ultimately leads to Gina's tragic death. This Justice Gray story of confused priorities, unfolds with suspense and intertwined webs of romance, lies, alcohol abuse, sex, lies of abuse, and as a plethora of strange events climax, the story conveys deep emotions, and vivid images. The Minnesota author, Justice Gray, creates her realistic characters...
