

Getting College Done: Manage Your Work, Live Your Life, and Get the Most Out of the College Experience (Paperback)

By Mark Thayer

49 North Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Discover the systems, skills and habits you need not only to get your work done, but also to achieve your academic goals---while getting the most out of every aspect of your college experience. Students come to college unprepared for the college reality---no one cares what you do with your time. Every college counselor tells students that the critical college success factor is time management. No one tells you how to do it. Getting College Done will teach you the power of conscious choice: how to get your arms around everything going on in your life, give everything you choose to do its time and place, and to do it such that you reduce stress and build the life you want. You ll also learn: How to quickly put together simple, inexpensive, and effective planning tools To see change as normal, and to deal with it without stress How to dig yourself out of a hole without caffeine, consecutive all-nighters, or burnout The causes of procrastination, and how to implement strategies to deal with it in the moment How to embrace the realities...
