

Shifters of the Black Moon (Paperback)

By William Kendall

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It was a strange year with a winter that comes along as rare as The Black Moon. Nonetheless, such was the year for Will Kross. He was a man beguiled by his own actions and choices, a man condemned and tormented by a past he was not guilty of, a man demoralized and disillusioned by a past created by himself and the beliefs of those who wanted so desperately to believe the worst in him that they would spin a tale anyone would believe if they wanted to see him fail. Then came Benjamin, Texas and a Marshal named Collin Teale along with a range war. Then came Seven Wells and an alluring woman who gave him hope in a future not yet determined. Then came the battle with the Comanche War chief who can only be described in vision through a metamorphosis during the time of the Black Moon. The brave raced through the starry black night, his feet left the earth to revel the light of the silver diamonds, his arms stretch and expand into wings whose powerful thrashing...
