Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Songs of Creelabeg You who, every day, in every work to which you set your hands, pause for a little to look back over space and time to one spot your heart keeps green forever; Who dream of shamrocks where the cactus grows, or fancy the fringed daisies are beneath the snow; Who hear below the rumble of factories the whisper of the river, and the call of the cuckoo above the noise of cities; Who grow lonely sometimes for quiet places back home where the gray dew lingers late, and where the blue-blossomed clover is sweet: For you are sung these Songs of Creelabeg.
