Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ontario Library Review, Vol. 1 Notice for Trustees. - Library boards are urged to encourage their librarians and assistants to attend the short course library training school. No library can do its best work without modern methods and a librarian with a knowledge of modern library science. A board that does less than its best for its people is unfair to them and unworthy of their trust. No pains have been spared to make this course of the highest order. Charles Canniff James, C.M.G., M.A., L.L.D., F.R.S.C., Dominion Commissioner of Agriculture. - Discoveries in rural life, by Dr C. C. James, was written especially for this number of the Review. The author died suddenly on a radial railway car in St. Catharines while on his way to visit his son on June 23rd. The paper is probably the last public writing from Dr. James pen. He was deeply interested in the rural population of Canada, and very recently expressed a desire to co-operate with the library workers of the Province in a study of the rural free library problem. Dr. James was the evening speaker at the recent meeting of the Ontario library association, where he dealt with the subject Agriculture and the war. The address was highly appreciated by a large number of delegates and their friends. He rendered valuable service to his country in the interest of agriculture and science, and was noted as a lecturer and author. His published works include: Early history of the town of Amherstburg, The second legislature of Upper Canada, A Tennyson pilgrimage, and Tennyson, the imperialist, The downfall of the Huron nation, A bibliography of Canadian poetry,...
