MAN EATER (PAPERBACK)

Brash Books, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Shamus Anthony Award winning author Gar Anthony Haywood's brutally funny Hollywood thriller Man Eater makes Get Shorty and The Player look like Disney movies. Ronnie Deal's no hero. She's just a drop-dead gorgeous Hollywood movie executive having a really bad day who's in no mood to watch when homicidal thug Neon Polk puts a beat down on poor little Antsy Carruth at the Tiki Shack bar. Ronnie puts Polk's lights out with a beer bottle, Antsy takes a powder, and Ronnie tries to forget the whole thing. The best rip-off of an Elmore Leonard novel since Elmore Leonard, Publisher's Weekly - Starred Review But not Neon. Antsy stole twenty-five grand from Neon's drug-dealing boss and Ronnie's just cost him a big recovery fee, not to mention cut his pride to the quick. Ronnie's got a completely different kind of payoff in mind for Neon now, and with the help of ex-con and aspiring screenwriter Ellis Langford--who's got big troubles of his own in the form of two psychos named Jorge and Jaime Ayala--she's about to learn how to make a real killing in Tinseltown. It all makes for one of the wildest, funniest, and chillingly authentic Hollywood crime stories ever told. A tale bearing traces of Elmore Leonard and Preston Sturges [that] suggests that LA street violence and Burbank studio infighting are the same bloodthirsty sport. a lean, funny thriller, Kirkus Reviews - Starred...
