

Agricultural Trade Highlights: February 1992 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By United States Department of Agriculture

FBC LTD, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Agricultural Trade Highlights: February 1992 While all participants will apparently engage in the country schedule exercise, a number of countries, including those of the EC and Japan, are still seeking fundamental revisions to the draft text. The u.s. Position is that the draft text on agriculture could be improved in a number of important areas, but is an acceptable basis for concluding the negotiations. The first meeting of the reconvened gatt Panel on oilseeds concluded February 4 in Geneva. The United States emphasized that the new EC oilseeds regime would continue to nullify and impair benefits under the zero-duty binding. The u.s. Team argued the general level of EC support remains unchanged and that the EC had not restored the competitive price relationship between domestic and imported oilseeds, as required by the Panel in its original 1989 report. The EC maintained that the new regime addressed the original Panel's concerns that EC producers were completely insulated from world prices. The Community's view of the terms of reference for the reconvened Panel allowed only for a ruling...
