Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Celebrity: Rohit Srivastava comes to the United States for getting a Master s degree in Computer Engineering. He longs for his home, family and friends. He has a hard time being accepted in the new society and making new friends of either gender. After graduating he undergoes the anxiety of finding a job since he does not have a Green Card. His family in India arranges a marital match for him with Seema Dhillon who is the daughter of a corrupt Air Force officer amassing large wealth by bribery. She is also in love with her cousin whom she cannot marry. The marriage falters since there is no attachment between the two and also the Dhillon family tries to dominate and take over the life of Rohit. Meanwhile Rohit encounters a beautiful movie star Archana Roy, while traveling on a business trip. He saves her from a very embarrassing situation that sparks a bond between them. This turns into a torrid romantic affair. Archana knows about Rohit s marriage. She is in love with him but does not want to break his home. She tries to help the situation keeping herself in the background. Coming to America: Raj starts his life in the United States in a small and arid town of Odessa in West Texas. In spite of his several degrees and long experience in India, he toils for the minimum wage in a sweat shop along with undocumented aliens from Mexico. He slowly works his way out of the hell hole and carves up a career in IT. His life is studded with some laughable and some lamentable incidents. Sojourn: The central stage of...
