Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: .The great man in the eyes of the world is the man who has great revenues The great man in the eyes of God is the man who has righteousness. What a turning of the tables death makes! Verse 9. Every man's life is a plan of God, and all men are under the control of almighty power, and are used to carry out the purposes of God, whether they will or not. This leads to cavil and blasphemy; but the answer of Rom. ix. 18 to 21, remains the same in all ages. Poor, pitiful, puny, polluted man, who would be independent of God and have the universe under his own control! No wonder he chafed by the thought of the impotence of his rage, the insignificance of his power, --chained, whether he will or not, to the chariot wheels of an omnipotent God. Verses...

Good e book and useful one. I have got read and that I am confident that I will likely to go through once more again later on. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
